

Change the language of Gmail and Google Apps

The image consists of three screenshots of the Gmail settings page in Japanese, illustrating the steps to change the language. Each screenshot has an orange callout box with an arrow pointing to a specific element.

- First Screenshot: Shows the Gmail interface with the settings gear icon in the top right corner. A callout box labeled "Click [設定]" points to the gear icon.
- Second Screenshot: Shows the settings menu with the "設定" (Settings) option highlighted. A callout box labeled "Click [設定]" points to this option.
- Third Screenshot: Shows the "設定" (Settings) page with the "言語" (Language) section. The "法政大学メール表示言語: [日本語]" option is highlighted. A callout box labeled "Select the language you prefer" points to this option.
- Fourth Screenshot: Shows the "設定" (Settings) page with the "言語" (Language) section. The "法政大学メール表示言語: [日本語]" option is highlighted. A callout box labeled "Click to change the language of other Google services" points to the "Google サービスの言語設定を変更" link.
- Fifth Screenshot: Shows the "設定" (Settings) page with the "言語" (Language) section. The "変更を保存" (Save changes) button is highlighted. A callout box labeled "Click [変更を保存]" points to this button.
